MODULE DESCRIPTOR

THE MODULE DESCRIPTOR PROVIDES ESSENTIAL INFORMATION TO STUDENTS, COURSE TEAMS AND OTHERS ON A PARTICULAR MODULE.

Module Name	Screen Studies (Joint)
Module Code Student Records to establish coding protocol	SCR402
Credit Value	30
Level and Study block e.g. Level 4, Study block 2	Level 4, Study Block 1
Pre-requisites Insert name, codes will be inserted once created by Student Records	N/A
Named Module Leader	Alan Kramer
Module Aim One succinct statement	The module aims to provide an overview of formal, aesthetic and ideological shifts in international cinema from the silent era to the present, through the analysis of key titles, which are illustrative of technological and creative development.
Summary Module Description	This module will focus on the varied aspects of storytelling from creative to technical which contribute towards a filmed work which challenges existing aesthetics. Students will analyse case study films from multiple perspectives, including thematic, narrative structure, genre, ideology, and the relationship between style and technology. A number of critical responses to cinema – including genre study, auteur theory, and feminist critiques - will also be applied to featured titles, both fiction and documentary. The short film format will also be analysed as an introduction to the module and discussed for comparative storytelling techniques and its value and influence for feature length independent and mainstream cinema.

Module Specific Employability Skills

The module will offer you an opportunity to practice the following skills that can be used in professional settings in film, television and creative industries, as well as in academia and beyond:

Industry & Business Knowledge: You will develop an ability to recognise and apply relevant terminologies, technologies and processes to your creative practice or evaluation of others' work.

Critical Thinking & Analysis: You will develop an ability to look below the surface of film and television, make connections and reflect on different social and creative perspectives. Through this process you will build a more profound understanding not only of film and television but also of values and attitudes in contemporary global societies that influence what you see on the screen.

Expanded Worldview: You will appreciate a range of diverse creative practices and modes of expression. You will also develop social and political sensitivity, especially regarding representation.

Organisation: You will advance your project and time management skills.

Communication skills: You will practice an ability to articulate your ideas in writing and speech in a coherent and clear manner that can be understood by non-specialist audiences.
