2. ADMISSIONS

2.1 It is your responsibility to ensure that all of the information you provide to the School is true, accurate and complete, and that you have not omitted any essential information.

2.2 If it is discovered that your application contains material inaccuracies or fraudulent information, or that significant information has been omitted during your Application, the School may withdraw or amend your Offer. If this is discovered after you have registered, we have the right to cancel your registration without compensating you and/or revoke any subsequent Award. Any deposits or fees paid as a result of this application will be non-refundable.

2.2.1 If the School is notified by UCAS that your application has been cancelled or withdrawn due to material inaccuracies or fraudulent information, then your application or enrolment may be terminated in line with the UCAS terms and conditions. Any deposits paid during this application will be non-refundable.

2.3 The Offer the School makes to you will be conditional or unconditional. If your Offer is conditional, the School will set out the conditions which you will need to fulfil in order to be admitted onto your chosen Programme or Course.

2.4 If you have not fulfilled the conditions of your Offer before the date notified to you in your Offer or any other date notified to you, the School reserves the right to withdraw your Offer. You will not be entitled to a refund of any paid deposit in accordance with the School's Tuition Fee Policy.

2.5 You may be required, at the request of the School, to provide satisfactory evidence of your qualifications (including English language qualifications, if required) before admission. Failure to provide such evidence to the School's reasonable satisfaction may result in the termination of your Offer, the revocation of your registration as a student of the School and the termination of the Contract. You will not be entitled to a refund of any paid deposit in accordance with the School's Tuition Fee Policy.

3. IMMIGRATION

3.1 If you are resident outside of the United Kingdom (UK), you will need to demonstrate, prior to enrolment on your programme, that you have a valid immigration status to undertake your proposed programme of study. If you fail to demonstrate that you have a valid immigration status the School reserves the right to withdraw you from your programme (without liability to you).

3.2 You must take responsibility for ensuring that you comply with the terms of your student visa whilst studying at the School.

3.3 The School is required to withdraw sponsorship of your visa allowing you to study if you do not comply with Home Office rules, including but not limited to:

3.3.1 your overall attendance is not deemed to be acceptable.

3.3.2 your enrollment has been terminated, or you withdraw or commence a break in study.

3.3.3 you successfully complete your programme of study in a shorter period than originally planned.

3.4 If you choose to withdraw from your studies or if the School terminates your enrolment, this could affect the validity of your visa and your ability to enter and/or remain in the United Kingdom.

3.5 If your visa is revoked for any reason, the School will terminate your enrollment on your programme and terminate the Contract with you. In this case you will not be entitled to a refund of any deposit or programme fees already paid in accordance with the School's Tuition Fee Policy.

3.6 On occasion, the School will need to contact the Home Office to clarify details on outstanding visa applications and previous immigration history. By accepting these terms and conditions of study, you consent to the School contacting the Home Office on your behalf and the Home Office releasing such information to the School.

4. CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION

4.1 Your admission to the School, attendance on a programme, and right to enjoy any of the privileges of membership of the School, including access to services and facilities, is subject to you complying with the terms of the Contract and enrolling with the School. Ongoing terms of registration with the School are outlined in the CFS Enrolment & Registration Policy.

4.2 In accepting an offer of a place to study and subsequently enrolling on your programme, you agree to use all efforts to fulfill all the academic requirements of your programme in accordance with the terms of the Contract, including attendance at lectures, seminars and any other such teaching sessions provided by the School, the timely completion of assessment as directed by your Programme or Course team and, where required, attendance at formal examinations.

4.3 If you do not act in accordance with this Contract, or any of the documents referred to in it, the School may take disciplinary action against you under the School's Disciplinary Procedures and/or may withdraw you from your programme.

4.4 By accepting an Offer you are confirming that you have no unspent criminal convictions (excluding motoring offences) that you have not previously declared through the application process. If this is not the case you must notify the School via hello@centralfilmschool.com prior to enrolment so that the School can consider whether such convictions are compatible with membership of the School and, in particular, with a place on one of our programmes. For some programmes, disclosure of spent convictions may also be required, as specified by Admissions.

4.5 By accepting an Offer, you agree to be bound by the policies and procedures set out in the Enrolment and Registration Policy, and the Procedures for Assessment, Reassessment & Progression (BA Students only) and the Academic Regulations. These policies and procedures set out specific steps you must take to ensure your continuous enrolment with the School and are included in the 'Pre-Contract Information' sent to you with your offer. These policies may be amended and updated from time to time, and are ratified through the Academic Board where a material change is implemented.

5. FEES AND PAYMENT

5.1 By accepting an Offer and subsequently enrolling on your programme, you are confirming that you accept responsibility to ensure your programme fees are paid in accordance with the published Tuition Fee Policy. You also agree to be bound by the School's regulations on the payment of fees, refunds in the event of withdrawal from your studies and the consequences of non-payment, as amended from time to time. These are set out in the Tuition Fee Policy.

5.2 The School may pursue legal proceedings against you if you are in debt to the School. In addition, if you are in debt to the School (whether for tuition or other fees) you will be recorded as a debtor of the School in any references requested from the School.

5.3 If you have any concerns regarding payment of fees or require further information about programme fees (including the refund of programme fees), please contact accounts@centralfilmschool.com

5.4 Non-tuition fee related debt, such as your liability for damage to School property through negligence, will not impact your academic progression through the programme, but may lead to removal of other services, such as equipment use for personal projects, or use of School facilities for such projects.

Home Students

5.5 Home students in receipt of the government tuition fee loan will be exempt from paying the deposit. Where a student is only entitled to a partial tuition fee loan, they will pay the remaining balance; they may either pay the balance in advance of the start date or termly. The amount paid termly will depend on any government tuition fee loan arrangements in place, with the remaining balance divided by three if paid termly.

5.5.1 The School applies the UK Government's requirements for eligibility of Home students, for tuition fees and CAS purposes. These requirements can be found here: <https://www.gov.uk/student-finance/who-qualifies>

International Students

5.6 For all Undergraduate programmes, the deposit must be paid in advance of the programme start date to secure your place. Payment is deemed to have been made when we have received cleared funds. The deposit is deducted from the overall tuition fees and is not an additional charge.

5.7 International Students must pay the first year's tuition fees in full by the 21st of June for Programmes commencing in September and by 28th of September for Programmes commencing in January. The CAS will not be issued until the first year tuition fees are paid in full. Payment of tuition fees for each term thereafter must be made in full 30 days prior to the start of each term.

5.8 In addition to your programme fees, you may incur additional expenditure such as (but not limited to) book purchase, online content providers (such as Netflix), specialist materials (such as scriptwriting software), additional production costs (excluding the budget provided by The School for certain productions), reassessment fees, library fees (including lost item costs), printing fees, and fines charged to the student in accordance with the Student Disciplinary Procedures. Although some assistance from School funds may be available to meet such expenditure, you shall have primary responsibility for payment.

5.8.1 the School may request a refundable deposit for booking some resources and equipment for personal use or for productions that are not part of the School syllabus. This deposit will be kept by the School in instances of loss or damage due to negligence on your behalf.

5.8.2 You will be liable for the production insurance costs involved for any personal projects that are not part of the School's syllabus, including those that are produced in collaboration with students from other film schools, friends, industry professionals or personal/professional clients.

5.8.3 Should you use The School's equipment and/or resources (including on site facilities) and not make arrangements for insurance, you are liable for any costs incurred due to damage or negligent use of The School's equipment, facilities or resources.

5.8.4 the School is not liable for any loss incurred during the pre-production, production and post-production of any personal project outside of the School's syllabus.

5.8.5 if you are not properly insured for any personal projects outside of the School's syllabus, or have purposely misled the School in any aspect of your personal project, you may be subject to The School's Student Disciplinary Procedures and/or loss of any deposit you have paid.

5.8.6 Students are expected to book resources, props and equipment in accordance with the School's Props and Equipment Booking Protocol.

Production Budgets for MA Filmmaking Students

5.8.7 All production costs at Postgraduate level are your responsibility, you will be liable for all production budgets for module exercise and the Graduation Film Project as well as production insurance costs. We recommended a budget of £350 for the module exercise and £500 for the Graduation Film Project. Please note that some MA productions have budgets which are significantly higher, and lower, than the above guidance

5.9 The School works with an accommodation partner who can assist students with making arrangements for student accommodation. The School does not take payment on behalf of the agent and accepts no responsibility for accommodation provided through our partner or accommodation secured privately.

5.9.1 The school charges an administration fee for accommodation booked with FindDigs

5.10 The School may pursue legal proceedings against you if you are in debt to the School. In addition, if you are in debt to the School (whether for tuition or other fees) you will be recorded as a debtor of the School in any references requested from the School.

5.11 If you have any concerns regarding payment of fees or require further information about programme fees (including the refund of programme fees), please contact accounts@centralfilmschool.com

5.12 Non-tuition fee related debt, such as your liability for damage to School property through negligence, will not impact your academic progression through the programme, but may lead to removal of other services, such as equipment use for personal projects, or use of School facilities for such projects.

6.DELIVERY OF ADVERTISED PROGRAMMES AND SERVICES

6.1 The School will use reasonable endeavours to deliver programmes in accordance with the descriptions set out in the Contract. However:

6.1.1 Due to the period between prospectus publication and your enrolment on a programme, circumstances may change due to factors beyond the School's reasonable control and therefore it may sometimes be necessary to vary the terms or content of the programme or services described in the prospectus. The School will use all reasonable endeavours to ensure that changes are kept to a minimum, but if we are required to make any significant changes to the terms of the Contract or your programme (as described in your Offer and/or prospectus) before you enrol at the School, the School shall bring these to your attention as soon as possible and if you reasonably believe that the proposed change will prejudicially affect you, you may either cancel the Contract and withdraw from the programme without any liability to the School for programme fees (even if the 14-day cancellation period has expired) or transfer to another programme offered by the School for which you are qualified;

6.1.2 If there are not sufficient enrolments to make a programme or module viable, the School may be forced to cancel the programme or module. If you have received an Offer for a programme which the School discontinues prior to you registering at the School, the School will notify you as soon as possible and will use reasonable endeavours to provide a suitable replacement programme for which you are qualified. If you are unhappy with the replacement programme provided by the School or if the School is unable to provide a suitable replacement programme, you may cancel the Contract and withdraw from the programme without any liability for programme fees (even if the cancellation period referenced in Section 8 has expired);

6.1.3 following suitable consultation with students, the School reserves the right to vary elements of your programme from those described in the Contract in order to improve the quality of educational services, to meet the latest requirements of a commissioning or accrediting body, in response to student feedback, and/or due to a lack of student demand for certain modules. If we are proposing to make a significant change to your programme (such as (without limitation) the removal of a number of modules which changes the nature of the programme), we will notify you as soon as possible and in the case of the removal of a module, we will provide you with a suitable replacement module.

6.1.4 Central Film School is conscious of the fact that students choose to study with us because they are looking for a practical filmmaking experience alongside gaining a recognised qualification. As a specialist film school we already operate programmes with small student groups and so we endeavour to have students on campus for the practical elements of their programmes as well as seminar groups. The School reserves the right to deliver the programmes by distance learning, either in part or in full, while maintaining the overall quality of the programmes delivered online, if or when this is required by the UK Government . This may include the use of alternative assessments or and/or the rescheduling of modules in order to maintain the quality of learning. This does not affect your statutory rights.

6.2 If you choose to cancel the Contract (and withdraw from your programme) in accordance with this Clause 6, the School will use reasonable endeavours to assist you in finding an alternative comparable programme with another higher education provider in the United Kingdom.

7. LIABILITY

7.1 Whilst the School takes all reasonable care to ensure the safety and security of its students whilst on the School's campus, the School does not accept responsibility, and expressly excludes liability for damage to students' property or intellectual property, other than through the negligence of the School, its staff or agents. You are advised to insure your property against theft and other risks.

7.1.2 The School shall not be held responsible for any injury to you (financial or otherwise), or for any damage to your property, caused by another student, or by any person who is not an employee or authorised representative of the School.

7.2.2 loss of income or revenue;

7.2.3 loss of business;

7.3 If an act, event or omission beyond the reasonable control of the School (for example a flood, fire, act of God, industrial action or a pandemic) render it impossible for the School to provide relevant education services, then the School is under no obligation to provide such services. However, reasonable steps will be taken to minimise the disruption to those services.

You have the right to cancel this contract within 14 days without giving any reason, although in order to assist the School with future planning we may ask why you chose to end the contract.

9.4.4 action has been taken against you in accordance with the School's Student Disciplinary Procedures

9.5.2 if the School becomes aware of information about you which it did not know before (for example, unspent criminal convictions) which, in the reasonable opinion of the School, makes it inappropriate for you to study on your programme; or

9.5.3 if, in the reasonable opinion of the School, you have failed to provide the School with all relevant information, or have supplied false or misleading information, relating to your application for your programme.
