Future Filmmakers Summer Camp 2023

For ages 13-17
London, United Kingdom

"I feel like I learnt everything, from the pre-production all the way to post-production of a short film, including screenwriting!

My parents and I searched through many different summer camps, but I chose to study in the UK because of its leading film industry."

Student from France

Calling all Future Filmmakers

We at Central Film School believe that you're never too young (or old) to tell stories. Since 2008 we've provided thousands of budding filmmakers from all over the world with the skills and training they need to make their cinematic dreams a reality. We're delighted to launch the Future Filmmakers Summer Programme with our partner FindEducation for 2023. This camp will introduce you to the fundamentals of filmmaking, from story development through the production phase to the essentials of post-production. Classes are delivered by Central Film School filmmaking and screenwriting tutors in the following key areas:

- Script development
- Production Design
- Lighting and cinematography
- Camera operation
- Editing
- Sound

You can choose to stay in our state-of-the-art residential accommodation with your classmates and fully immerse yourself in your cinematic project and the Summer camp experience. The course ends with a screening and wrap-party at our campus, where we can celebrate your success, and you get to see your name up on the big screen.

Start your filmmaking journey this Summer with Central Film School.

Our Facilities

Central Film School provides students with all the facilities and equipment they'll need on their learning journey. At Central Film School we have two professional studios. Professional rigging and the freedom for students to build any set imaginable has allowed these studio spaces to become a space station, a fortune-teller's tent, and a Parisian cafe.

All films at the school are shot on industry-grade digital equipment. Students will be trained on how to handle and use this equipment

Our facilities include:

- Two studios
- Edit and post-production suite
- Camera room
- Kit room
- Library
- Screening theatre
- Sound recording suite
- Prop room

Safety and Wellbeing

All young learners are well supervised at all times during their stay. All FindEducation staff have been through a strict selection process, trained in safeguarding, welfare and Prevent Duty and hold a recent enhanced level DBS (criminal background check) certificate. Only passionate, caring and dedicated staff are accepted to work with us.

No one except the students and staff of the same program have access to the building where they live. 24/7 on-site program staff members will be available to students. We have strict and respected curfew hours in all centres.
