International Student Guide

2023 - 2024

“Central Film School was the only university that offered Practical Filmmaking among the list of countries I was exploring. We learnt all kinds of roles, practical approaches to them and a chance to choose what role inspires you the most. Working in small groups made it personal and allowed us to concentrate on developing our skills ”

Welcome

Central Film School is the only film school situated in south west London. This has become one of the most sought-after areas in London.

We are committed to providing our students with every opportunity possible to speak directly with filmmakers of all kinds to learn about their journeys to becoming successful professionals in their chosen fields.

Central Film School has relationships with many major companies in the UK and international film industry. In addition to meeting industry professionals on a daily basis, students at the School are part of a wider network, connected to the Curzon Cinema chain and a range of production funds.

Our International Community

London is the travel hub of the UK. There are plenty of ways to get around the country and travel abroad. With nine major train stations as well as 5 major airports dotted around the UK.

We have welcomed students from over 52 countries; multiculturalism has been a defining characteristic of the school.

These countries include: Romania, Italy, Brazil, Israel, Spain, Japan, United Kingdom, Portugal, Ghana, Nigeria, Uganda, Canada, Saudi Arabia, United Arab Emirates, Lithuania, Singapore, Turkey, France, India, United States, China, Ireland, South Africa, Cyprus, Switzerland, Serbia.

Study in London

London, the capital of the United Kingdom, is amongst the oldest of the world's great cities and one of the most cosmopolitan. Known for its prestigious universities, London has attracted students from all over the world making it feel like a second home to a plethora of nationalities.

Food and Drink

Clapham, lying within the London Borough of Lambeth, is an affluent residential suburb and is home to some of the area's most popular pubs and restaurants. Its High Street offers modern Asian and European dining, from fast food to gourmet. There are also plenty of options for vegan, vegetarian or halal diets across the area or the entire city. You can also find a mix of cocktail bars, wood-panelled pubs or nightclubs where you can have fun and socialise with your new friends.

Cultural Life

London is one of the most culturally vibrant cities in the world. Home to world-famous theatres, galleries, festivals, museums, shopping centres and parks which allow you to immerse yourself in the culture. Markets are not something you'll want to miss either - to name just a few, Covent Garden Market, Borough Market and Camden Market offer a range of food and shopping experiences.

Cinema and Film Festivals

Feel like watching a movie in the open air and having a picnic at the same time? One of London's best festivals, Film4 Summer Screen at Somerset House, is there to let you indulge in a selection of contemporary and classic films. That it's just one of the numerous options you can delight yourself with as London's cinemas host exciting film festivals throughout the year.

Tuition Fees

If you are considering studying at Central Film School, or any other Institute, you should think about how you are going to pay for the following:

- Tuition fees
- Any other costs of your 'learning' such as production budgets, materials etc
- Accommodation costs
- Transportation costs
- Food and other living costs
- Immigration/Visa costs, if applicable

It is important you know how you will pay for these things when you apply to study at an institution.

Merit Scholarships

International Talent Award

Here at Central Film School, we want our students to achieve their full potential and we have several awards aimed at helping you do just that. We have invested over £30,000 annually into scholarships to support students from all backgrounds.

We have 6 partial scholarships available for high-achieving international students entering our undergraduate and postgraduate programmes in 2023.

Please visit our website for more information.

Accommodation

London is an amazing place to live and study, but you need comfortable and convenient accommodation to ensure you get the most out of what London offers you. Central Film School places great importance on helping students find the right accommodation to suit their specific needs.

To offer students as many options as possible, we have partnered with Finddigs, a specialist in providing accommodation for local and international students. Whether students choose to stay in the city centre or the leafy suburbs, Finddigs will be able to offer a selection of safe and secure housing where students can live, learn and socialise. Prices vary from £150 per week to £350+ per week, depending on the location and specification of the accommodation.

Useful private rental websites

Alternatively, students can search for private renting options. This is more usual for students in their second year of study. Some commonly used websites are listed below:

spareroom.co.uk

uk.easyroommate.com

moveflat.com

zoopla.co.uk

Before renting privately please ensure you are aware of your rights as a tenant:
